710.—Hon. John W. Noyes<sup>s</sup> died at his home in Chester last Friday evening at the advanced age of 92 years and 4 months. For a period of 70 years he had been a citizen of Chester and one of its leading business men most of that time.

Mr. Noyes was born in Springfield, this state, Jan. 14, 1810, and was a son of Daniel and Nancy (Weare) Noyes. His father was a native of Kingston and was among the early settlers of Newbury, Mass. He was a man of great prominence in his time and held all the public offices in the gift of the town in his day.

When Mr. Noyes first came to Chester, in 1832, he engaged in mercantile pursuits, and for a number of terms was a member of the legislature, serving first in 1841. He was a member of the Governor's council in 1864 and 1865. For over sixty years he had held the office of a justice of the peace continuously. For over seventy years he transacted more or less business through the probate courts.

Mr. Noyes was elected a director of Derry National bank in 1840, and in 1864 he was elected its president, and during all these years he filled the office with dignity and in a capable and business-like manner.

Mr. Noyes leaves a widow and two daughters, Mrs. William E. Greenough of Wakefield, Mass., and Miss Mary B. Noyes of Chester. He was a member of the Congregational church and always contributed to its support in a liberal manner.

He always lived an honest, upright and exemplary life. He was industrious, always anxious to do something for himself and others. He never used liquor or tobacco, and was generous and kind to the needy.

He was a gentleman of the old school, a type of man that is fast disappearing, tall, stately, dignified, senatorial-looking, courteous, honest as the sun, his word as good as his bond, gentle in disposition, a lover of his fellowmen, a stanch friend, high-minded, an active industrious business man, a noble Christian, deeply religious in his nature. Until prostrated by ill health he had occupied a prominent position in his town and county and was well known throughout the state. He had occupied numerous positions of trust and responsibility. Since the formation of the Republican party he has been a loyal and stanch adherent to its principles. He believed in its history, was proud of its achievements, and anticipated for it a glorious future. Throughout his long illness he kept in close touch and sympathy with the political movements of the day."—Derry News.

283—DAVID<sup>s</sup>—96. Son of James and Elizabeth (Brown), was born in Winchendon, 16 June, 1786; married Hannah

S. Needham, 1804 (?) He went to Norway, Me., about 1804; he had a good education for the times, and taught school in winter, engaging in other business in summer, until 1810, when he taught the public school in winter and a private school in summer until 1815. He began clearing his farm in 1810, the location being near the centre of the present town site. He was a surveyor of land, and some of his surveys are now in the county records. He was also a Justice of the Peace, and a conveyancer of real estate; and served as county commissioner for Oxford Co.

Late in life he published a history of Norway, the first history of an Oxford county town. It was a volume of 214 pages. Its array of facts and incidents does much credit to his observation and memory, of men and things, although the matter was crudely put together. The facts are not arranged in chronological order and not being indexed the work is not of easy reference. It speaks well for the town of Norway, for Mr. Noyes' book was written by a resident of Norway, printed upon Norway paper (manufactured at Steeps Falls) and bound in Norway by Noyes and Beals. (The Noyes book binder was Robert Noyes, also president of the Norway Savings Bank.)
